PROJECTS

Handyman Network — A platform to find your best handyman

Created a platform that helps people find handymen that are trustworthy based on the ratings and feedback from their clients :

- Frontend: React Native
- Backend: PHP, Laravel, and MySQL

Facebook-Clone — Website for people to interact

Built a social platform where users can add, block, remove friends from their list. Implemented using Bootstrap and JavaScript as frontend, PHP as backend language, and MySQL for the database.

The Sugar-factory — A dating app and more

Co-developed a dating app by focusing on those features: API implementation in the backend and frontend design (login, signup, home pages, etc). Implemented using Laravel for the backend using react-native for the frontend.

PROFILE

Being part of this new digital world makes me feel proud and it inspires me to participate in it. One major way of doing it is through coding, as everything now relies on technology. Coming from a mathematical background, as a student and a teacher, enriched my analytical skills and taught me how to be patient to handle on the spot problems.
